What a joy it has been to watch our congregation slowly return to in-person worship! One year ago, our first "video" worship was on Palm Sunday. Back then, all things Covid were new and very scary. Now, although the idea of Covid is still unsettling, we know that it's a manageable type of concern.

I'm sure all of us have learned a lot of things during the "pandemic". Speaking for myself, this last year has taught me:

1. That I had grown too used to having a comfy, middle-American life. Now I am more aware each day of just how many gracious blessings God bestows on me.
2. When folks don't get to worship in person regularly, many don't forget the congregation still has bills to pay and services to offer to believers.
3. Some people would remember to send in their tithes and offerings like clockwork even if they were unable to come to church for a year or more! In fact, some folks who are no longer members send regular donations to help the church grow.
4. Preaching in a (nearly) empty sanctuary while being filmed is NOT the same as seeing your dear faces, even with masks.
5. Watching the worship service I just filmed in the (nearly) empty sanctuary can make me crazy.
6. I CAN do Zoom meetings! I CAN print two-sided copies! I CAN change a printer cartridge!
7. I can NOT post every day on social media, no matter who tries to encourage me.
8. People still love to get cards and letters, even in this "instant" age.

9. We have gone far too long without a regular adult Bible study class.

And of course, I've learned many other things. So, I'm sure, have you. Yet I can bet that, for most of us, there's still nothing quite like sharing the peace and love of the Lord together. We've always known that there's light at the end of the tunnel, we just didn't always realize so clearly that the Light is Jesus, shared up close and personal with one another in our own dear sanctuary.

This week is Easter. Even though we won't be able (yet) to have flowers and lots of songs sung loudly to Mike's wonderfully jazzy tunes, we will greet our Risen Lord with all the amazement, joy, and (yes, we admit it) relief. Sing, little church. The night is nearly past, the Son is rising, and better times are ahead as we move forward! Blessings to you all—and I hope and pray you join us in person or on Facebook.

Peace
Pastor Karen

President's Corner

Leadership Team Member: Al Speicher - speial@comcast.net or (904-707-6702)

There are churches and congregations in parts of the US that continue to have severe COVID-19 'lock down's'. At SOL, I am grateful to be able to take communion at the altar. It feels strange to have to hold my mask hanging on my fingers as I receive the elements. I ask everyone to take a moment and pray for all congregations; our very survival as Christians, is at stake.

Your Pastor and Congregational Council are preparing for our next Congregational Meeting. Many of the items on the agenda have already been seen. I believe we will have a quorum this time, and be able to 'officially' proceed with our 2021 plans. If you have comments or questions, please see Pastor Karen or Al Speicher.

Thank you for your increased offerings so we may meet our financial obligations.

Please remember to bring your spring closet cleaning items to the Church for our Spring Clothes Give-a-Way. Please contact Debby Speicher for details.

Blessings, peace and grace to everyone,
Al Speicher

JoAnn

Outreach still wants to have a Garage Sale this month but we really need items to sale. Donations can be brought to church before Service or contact Debby for another time. We also need help to sort items and getting ready for the Sale. Please let Debby know if you can help sorting or during the Sale itself.

Debby

Worship & Music

Leadership Team Member: Vonda Miller - ontrey64@gmail.com

In this strange world of masks and distance, sometimes we lose sight of the personal touch that God wants us to have for one another. This year, instead of a strange 6-foot-apart meal, Vonda suggested a Bible study. We could be safely distanced, she pointed out, and still gather "closely" together.

We began each of the five studies with some safe snacks because food is one sure way to a Lutheran Christian's heart. Each week we studied a different subject with a look at:

WHAT the subject is (including definitions and other more personal viewpoints);

WHY the subject is important to our Christian lives;

WHERE to find mention of the subject in God's word; and

HOW the subject enriches our walk and our testimony.

We studied Faith, Grace, Hope, Blessings, and Love, since they are the primary gifts God gives us as we follow Jesus.

Vonda, Debby Speicher, Gary Strynick, and Pastor Karen took turns leading the group, and what a fine job our siblings in Christ did! We grew in our knowledge of scripture, in our understanding of each other, and in our awe at our majestic Lord and Savior.

We also got a small magnetic wooden slat each week with the subject written on it. At the end, it formed a cross, with a heart of love in the middle, perfect for a place on the fridge, to remind us of our loving God. The final evening we each received a Golden Ticket scratch-off for a secret treasure.

We appreciated the study so much that we are considering having a Bible study once a month to continue our growth! Perhaps you will join us, and be blessed to gather together!
